Cody Kiser, Region C Representative

Mark Your Calendars: Go to the pasc.net website and look over the calendar for dates and deadlines that are important to you and your councils. With these economic crunches being passed on to school districts, it is in our best interest to show how we can cut costs as well. Meeting early bird registration deadlines will show that you can save money too.

“With A Little Help From My Friends”

You bet!! Make plans for your council to support Altoona High School in their efforts to supply PASC with the 75th State Student Council conference! November 10th through the 12th, 2011, students from across the state will meet to ‘help’ their friends learn leadership roles and activities. You will be inspired by awesome speakers and entertained by the best. Go to the conference website at pasc75.org to see details of their conference. Advisors: Make reservations now at the host hotel because there is a Penn State football game that weekend!

PAL Conferences: 2011

Also on the website for PASC you can see details for planning to attend the Principal-Advisors-Leaders conferences around the state this fall. Different sites have been selected to make travel more efficient.

“LAKESIDE LEADERSHIP”

Region 2 Conference

Canandaigua Lake, NY

April 8-9-10, 2011

About 70 student leaders from Region 2 of NASC met in New York last weekend to discuss the mission of the Northeast Region of student leaders. This mission would include the drive to ‘unite and motivate’ the leaders from this area. More planning will be taking place over the next year to solidify the intent.

Stay tuned for more on this group effort!

WANTED:

REGION C ‘REP’

The two-year term of Cody Kiser will be open in January of 2012. This seat will be bid on at the State conference in Altoona in November. Interested schools should get in touch with Cody or Mindy Leonard, District 6 director at mleonard@shade.k12.pa.us.

This position requires a dedicated student that is willing to devote time to the PASC organization during January, March, August, and November for state association board of directors meetings. They are also expected to attend summer workshops (at no charge) and attend the National conference (at a discounted cost) during their term of service.

PASC Summer Workshops: Check out the pasc.net for information and dates. Now is the time to register for discounts! Don’t wait. Plan now!
